

Excerpt from Life of the Blessed Charles Spinola, of the Society of Jesus: With a Sketch of the Other Japanese Martyrs, Beatified on the 7th of July, 1867 In the month of December, 1866, when the French, on leaving Rome, seemed to abandon the Pope to the mercy of his enemies, all eyes were riveted on the holy city, in the expectation of some revolutionary movement. This was the moment chosen by Pius IX to announce to the astonished world that, in the month of July then ensuing, he would solemnly proceed to the Beatification of a large number of Japanese martyrs. As this coincided with the time for celebrating the eighteenth centenary jubilee of the death of St. Peter, the Sovereign Pontiff invited all the bishops of Catholicity to gather around him on that occasion. Some regarded this as a challenge; it was, however, simply a holy confidence in the cause of the Church; it was, perhaps, an inspiration from on High.
