

Eirica Macauley sees the road to better days: the remainder of the Oregon Trail. The trail is hard, even for experienced cattle hands like James Jones, but the man's will and determination lend Eirica strength. Yet, Eirica knows she can never accept the cowboys' love; the shadows that darken her past will hardly disappear in the light of day. But as each night passes and their wagon train draws nearer its destination, James' intentions grow clearer. James stays beside her, the beautiful widow knows that when dawn comes, she'll no longer be alone.
